How can I earn CM credits?

The American Planning Association (APA) (www.planning.com) and the Washington Chapter (www.washington-apa.org) have extensive information on activities that qualify for CM credit. CM credit hours requested for sessions at this conference are pending.

How can I log CM credits?

Every AICP member has a personal online CM log. Use your APA ID and password to log in at www.planning.org, search for CM activities, rate them, and submit them to your CM log. CM credit has been requested for the majority of workshops and sessions at this conference unless noted. If you have questions, please contact APA at aicpcm@planning.org.

Keynote Speakers

Charles R. Wolfe

Seeing the Better City: Planners' Edition

Charles R. (Chuck) Wolfe, M.R.P., J.D. provides a unique perspective about cities as both a long time writer about urbanism worldwide and an attorney in Seattle, where he focuses on land use and environmental law and permitting. He is also Founder and Principal Advisor at the Seeing Better Cities Group and an Affiliate Associate Professor in the College of Built Environments at the University of Washington, where he teaches land-use law at the graduate level. Chuck is an avid traveler, photographer, and writer, and contributes on urban development topics to several publications, including Planetizen, CityLab/The Atlantic Cities, The Atlantic, The Huffington Post, Grist, seattlepi.com, and Crosscut.com. He blogs at myurbanist.com.

Chuck also speaks nationally and worldwide, including recent and pending engagements in Sweden, Australia and Scotland. Before Seeing the Better City, his first book, Urbanism Without Effort, was published in electronic form by Island Press in 2013.

Roger Millar

Transportation for a Changing Environment

Secretary of Transportation Roger Millar was appointed in August 2016. He joined WSDOT as deputy secretary in October 2015 and was appointed acting secretary in February 2016. Millar oversees an agency of 6,800 employees, with responsibility for 18,600 lane miles of highway, 3,294 bridges, general aviation airports, passenger- and freight-rail programs, and Washington State Ferries, the nation's largest ferry system.

Millar is a second generation civil engineer with 38 years of experience in the transportation arena. During that time, he has worked in construction, design, planning, research, policy development, management and administration in both the public and private sectors. Prior to joining WSDOT, he served for five years as vice president of Smart Growth America, a national not-for-profit organization, providing technical assistance to state transportation agencies in Florida, Michigan, Minnesota, Oregon, Tennessee and Vermont. Millar also served as director of the National Complete Streets Coalition.

Welcome Speaker

Joseph Scorcio, AICP

City Manager, City of SeaTac, Washington

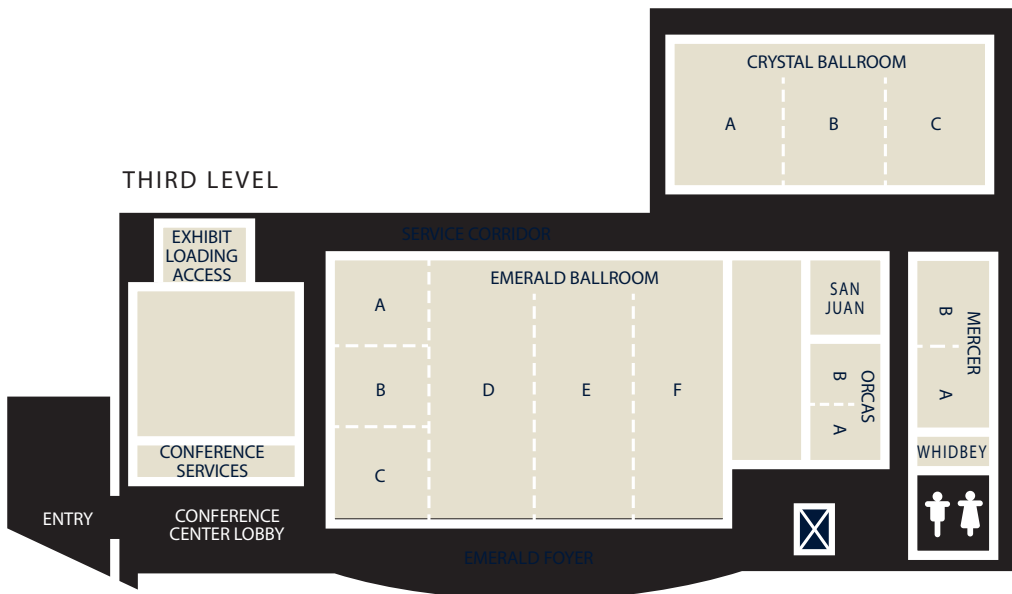

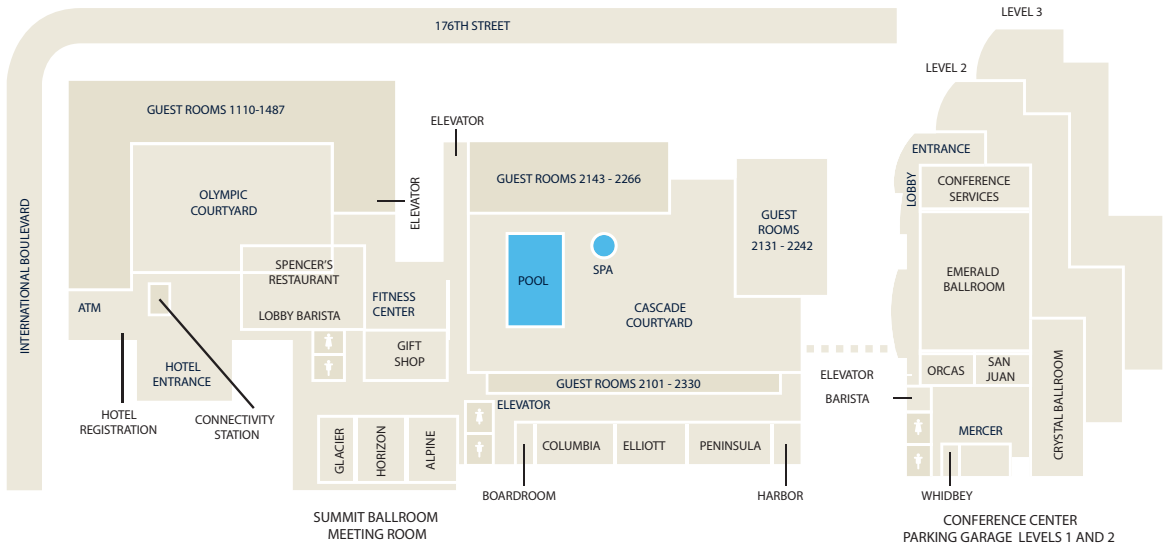

Joseph Scorcio was the Director, City of SeaTac Community and Economic Development Department from 2013-2016. Prior to joining the SeaTac team, he was a Pierce County employee for 29 years, the last 22 managing and developing the County's award winning Chambers Creek Properties project, which includes the Chambers Bay Golf Course (host site of the 2010 U.S. Amateur and 2015 U.S. Open Championships). Originally hired as Pierce County Planning Director, Joe also served as an Assistant Executive Director of County Operations and as a Special Assistant to various County Executives. He completed his Pierce County tenure as Public Development Manager and as the Deputy Wastewater and Water Utility Manager.

An avid community volunteer and fund-raiser, Joe is involved with the Humane Society, Boys and Girls Clubs, Library Foundation and Chambers Creek Foundation. He is married with 2 adult step-daughters, plays golf and travels

Seeing the Better City:
Planners’ Edition

Speaker: Charles R. Wolfe

In order to understand and improve cities today, personal observation remains as important as ever. Seeing the Better City brings our attention back to the real world right in front of us, focusing it once more on the sights, sounds, and experiences of place in order to craft policies, plans, and regulations to shape better urban environments. Through clear prose and vibrant photographs, Charles R. Wolfe shows how to catalog the influences of urban form, public transportation, and other basic city elements. He then shares insights into how to use recorded observations to contribute to better planning and design decisions.

Strategies for Analyzing and Representing Diverse and Extensive Public Input

Moderator: Beverly Mesa-Zendt, AICP, Island County Planning and Community Development

Speakers: Andrea Petzel, AICP, Broadview Planning, LLC; Jaki Rowbottom, Broadview Planning, LLC • Meredith Penny, Island County Planning and Community Development • Beckye Frey, Island County Planning and Community Development

Your participation plan worked...now what? As public engagement campaigns get more creative, planners need to become more adept at making sure that public input is accurately and authentically reflected in community policies and plans. By taking that community input and clearly identifying concerns, trends, and issues we can assist our elected and appointed officials in the decision-making process.

Emerald ABC ..... 1 CM

Shared Environment: Civilian-Military Land Use

Speakers: Deanah Watson, Washington State Department of Commerce, Growth Management Services • Claire Miller, Washington State Department of Commerce, Growth Management Services

This session will present land use compatibility issues facing local jurisdictions and neighboring military installations and discuss case studies reflecting important resolution strategies. Presenters will also highlight state and local efforts to promote compatible land use around military installations through the Washington State Military and Community Compatibility Strategy.

Mercer ..... 1 CM

Integrating Multimodal Freight Transportation

Speakers: Matthew Pahs, Washington State Department of Transportation • Ian Macek, Seattle Department of Transportation • Sean Ardussi, AICP, Puget Sound Regional Council

This panel discussion will explore freight planning at the state, regional, and local levels. Representatives from the Washington State Department of Transportation, Puget Sound Regional Council, and the Seattle Department of Transportation will each share the importance goods movement plays, how they approach freight planning, and their current collaboration efforts.

Crystal B & C ..... 1 CM

Homelessness Update

Moderator: Robert Sepler, Municipal Research & Services Center (MRSC)

Speakers: Breanne Schuster, ACLU of Washington • Nicole Macri, Washington State House of Representatives • Tedd Kelleher, Washington State Department of Commerce

Homelessness is an issue affecting every community in Washington State. This panel will provide a concise update on the latest information, law, and policies related to homelessness, with the goal of providing attending planners with a substantive overview of the latest developments in the law concerning homelessness.

11:30 am – 12:30 pm

Cultivating Ownership Through Community Engagement

Speaker: Eric Higbee, PLA, Pomegranate Center

At this training, participants will get an overview of the Pomegranate Method and will learn how to structure and implement effective and decisive community-design processes that maximize community ownership at every step.

Mercer..... 1 CM

Into the Urban Wilds: Community-Based Planning for Urban Greenbelts

Speakers: Mark Hafs, Toole Design Group • Garrett Farrell, Seattle Parks and Recreation

The session is intended to provide a road map for community-based greenbelt development, one that can be used by agencies, communities, and groups advocating for recreation, non-motorized transportation, ecological restoration, safe neighborhoods, and community development.

Emerald ABC ..... 1 CM

Creative and Collaborative Transportation Planning in SeaTac

Moderator: Patrick Lynch, AICP, Transpo Group

Speakers: Stefanie Herzstein PE, PTOE, Transpo Group • Florendo Cabudol, PE, City of SeaTac • Nicola Longo, Port of Seattle

The City, Port, and other agencies in SeaTac discuss the unique transportation challenges of this growing community and how these agencies work together to solve issues using creative solutions. The discussion includes all aspects of transportation including planning of the system to addressing parking, ped/bike modes, light rail, and more.

Crystal B & C..... 1 CM

The Hirst Decision: Intersection of Land Use Regulation and Water Resource Management

Moderator: Dave Christensen, Washington Department of Ecology

Speakers: Mark Personius, Whatcom County • Ikuno Masterson, Snohomish County • Perry Huston, Okanogan County • Mike Hermanson, Spokane County

This session will review the decision and the varied approaches several counties have taken to implement the decision, including lessons learned and advice for counties on considerations and potential implications as their planning staff consider updating their comprehensive plans to align with the decision.

Preparing for Disasters – Effective Recovery Planning for the Whole Community

Speakers: Tom Donnelly, FEMA Region X • Erika Lund, City of Seattle Office of Emergency Management • Derrick Hiebert, Washington State Hazard Mitigation Strategist

Learn current trends in disaster recovery planning at the federal, state and local levels, how pre-disaster recovery planning can minimize recovery impacts in rural as well as urban settings, and what recovery planning tools and resources available to communities.

Emerald ABC ..... 1.25 CM

How to Build Successful University Partnerships

Moderator: Christopher Campbell, Ph.D., University of Washington

Speakers: Ali Modarres, Ph.D, University of Washington • Nicholas Zaferatos, Ph.D., AICP, Western Washington University

How can universities advance the goals of professional planners and municipal leaders? What are the challenges to working with universities and what types of collaborations work best? We will share examples of successful community/university partnerships as well as practical advice on how to ensure that your university/professional partnership goes well.

Crystal B & C..... 1.25 CM

2:00 – 3:30 pm

The Importance of Ethics in Planning

Speakers: Paul Inghram, AICP, Puget Sound Regional Council • Karen Wolf, FAICP, King County Office of Performance

Acting in an ethical manner is of key importance to all participants involved in a planning process, including but not limited to professional planners. This session will be a detailed discussion of ethical considerations raised by real-world situations, including a Q&A at the end of the session.

Visualizing Compatible Density

Moderator: Rachel Miller, MAKERS
Speakers: Lisa Rutzick, City of Seattle • Clark H. Close, M.A., City of Renton • Lisa Pool, AICP, City of Bellingham • Allan Giffen, City of Everett

Density = Bad. At least that’s what we often hear. But the reality is that we need density. Whether it ends up being perceived as good or bad usually depends on the quality of design. A panel of planners will show and discuss some very interesting examples!

Emerald ABC ..... 1 CM

Are you Ready for Climate Migrants and Refugees?

Speakers: George P.R. Benson, Climate Migrants and Refugees Project • Anna Zhuo, Climate Migrants and Refugees Project • Cristyn Edwards, Climate Migrants and Refugees Project

The roundtable will be hosted by the Climate Change Migrants and Refugees Project. It will feature an overview of the challenges associated with climate change displacement both in North America and globally, and what potential receiving areas like the Pacific Northwest can do in anticipation of this significant demographic shift.

Crystal B & C..... 1 CM

Eastside TOD: Past, Present and Future

Moderator: Martin Regge, AICP, NBBJ
Speakers: John Beutler, AICP, Skidmore, Owings & Merrill • Matthew Jones, MKA • Bradley Calvert, AICP, City of Bellevue • Nate Holland, NBBJ

Hear first-hand from policy makers, planners, designers and engineers how former, present and future transit-oriented development (TOD) projects are impacting the eastside and how design computation is influencing the design process. The session will explore three TOD projects including Issaquah Highlands, The Spring District and Wilburton Commercial Area.

Climate Resiliency Planning

Moderator: - Michael Stringer, AICP, Maul Foster & Alongi, Inc.

Speakers: Joe Casola, PH.D., University of Washington Climate Impacts Group • Kris Koski, PE, City of Aberdeen • Julie Morse, The Nature Conservancy • Gretchen Greene, Ph.D., Maul Foster & Alongi, Inc.

Washington communities are starting to proactively plan for climate change. This workshop will provide participants an update on the latest climate projections and engage them in a small group collaborative planning exercise to evaluate and prioritize actions that local governments can take to become more resilient to climate change.

Emerald ABC ..... 1.25 CM

Planning for Autonomous Vehicles

Speaker: Ryan Snyder, Transpo Group

This session will provide an understanding of the technology of self-driving vehicles as well as how they can impact our transportation systems, communities and way of life. It will highlight potential user benefits, potential benefits to society overall, and potential drawbacks. We will close with a discussion of policy considerations.

Emerald D ..... 1.25 CM

Road Map to Washington's Future

Moderator: Michael Cardwell, AICP, Quinault Indian Nation

Speakers: Joseph W. Tovar, FAICP, The William D. Ruckelshaus Center • Bill Adamson, COL (Retired) U.S. Army, South Sound Military and Communities Partnership • Nicholas Zaferatos, PhD, AICP, Western Washington University

Learn about the "Road Map to the Future" a project to establish a desired Vision for Washington future and build agreement on how to update and improve Washington's statutory framework of planning laws, institutions and policies. Hear about possible ways to better connect the framework of the GMA planning done by local governments with the planning frameworks that govern Washington's military installations and native nations.

Application of WSDOT’s Practical Solutions Planning

Moderator: Kate Drennan, CH2M

Speakers: Nazmul Alam, WSDOT • Tung Le, CH2M

Learn about WSDOT’s new approach to transportation planning: Practical Solutions. This data-driven and performance-based approach uses the latest tools and performance measures to seek lower cost efficiencies in operating highways, ferries, transit and rail, reduce travel demand to save money, and reduce the need for building costly new infrastructure expansion.

Emerald ABC ..... 1 CM

Taking it to the Streets

Speakers: Eric Schmidt RA, PLA, AICP, Cascade Design Collaborative Inc. • John Davies, PTP, AICP, KPG

As the temper of the nation begins to boil, streets serve as a conduit address social justice and battle climate change. Our streets are an underutilized public asset. Creating a more resilient street environment will reduce waste; form healthier, livable environments; and help our cities respond to future climate impacts

Wastewater Treatment Systems Through a Land Use and Permaculture Lens

Speakers: David Wayne Johnson LEED AP ND, Jefferson County Department of Community Development • Al Cairns, Jefferson County Conservation District

What are the costs and benefits of conventional vs. alternative wastewater treatment systems through both a regulatory and permaculture lens? Permaculture design principles, real life examples, and tough questions will help to answer whether alternative systems are the way to go, and if so, how might we permit them.
